PIWA's Fall Reception

Professionals network and keep updated on the industry

More than 70 insurance professionals gathered for the Professional Insurance Wholesalers of New York State's Fall Cocktail Reception, Nov. 2, at Chef Bobby Flay's stunning Bar Americain in Midtown Manhattan. Company and agency attendees gathered in the restaurant's loft for an enjoyable evening of networking.

"PIWA's Fall Reception is a great opportunity for wholesalers to meet with their colleagues and company representatives to stay in touch with what is happening in the industry," said newly installed PIWA President Tony Sidoni.

Plans already are underway for the next PIWA event. Watch your PIWA publications for details. 📰
