PIWA Fall Reception

Networking with peers and company reps abound

Insurance professionals gathered for the Professional Insurance Wholesalers of New York State Fall Cocktail Reception, Nov. 1, at the Sanctuary Hotel's Haven Rooftop in Midtown Manhattan. Company representatives and wholesale agents gathered on the stunning rooftop for an enjoyable evening of networking.

“More than 70 wholesalers got together at the PIWA Fall Reception,” said PIWA President Tony Sidoni. “It was a perfect chance to catch up with each other and discuss what’s going on in the wholesalers markets and the insurance industry.”

Plans already are underway for the next PIWA event. Watch your PIWA publications for details. 📺
